

Sandy Baker — Sandy, her husband Craig, children Cody, Caylee, and Celsey have been parishioners of Sacred Heart since 2002. Sandy has been a member of Parish Council since 2007. She is SHC representative for both the Regional Pastoral Council, and the Diocesan Pastoral Council. She is currently involved with Youth Group, Confirmation classes, and Adult Religious Education. She faithfully devotes one hour to Adoration every Thursday. She feels blessed and honored to serve Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Jim Villano — Jim and his wife Chris have attended SHC since 1980. They served the diocese in the Jesuit Volunteer Corps at St. Mary's Mission in the mid-70's. Jim previously served on the SHC Pastoral Council from 1991 to 1998. He is currently the vice-chair of the council and serves on the Social Justice Committee, the Knights of Columbus, and as a lector. He and Chris are both teachers and they have three daughters.

Joe Blackwelder — Joe Blackwelder has been a member of SHC for many years. He serves as Member-At-Large on the Parish Pastoral Council. He's also a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Sacristan, CCD teacher, and participates in Knights of Columbus. Joe hopes to learn and grow in faith while serving on the council and representing parishioner needs.

Mary Rutherford — Mary's been a member of Sacred Heart since 2002. She and John were married 25 years ago at ICC. Mary is the proud parent of daughter Laramie Rutherford and grandmother to Soloman Rutherford. Her current parish service is through the Parish Pastoral Council where she hopes to increase her involvement in the parish and deepen her faith. She graduated from Lewis-Clark State College in Idaho and from Indiana University and is an Honor Graduate of Lathrop.

Amy Moriarty — Amy and her husband Martin have been members of Sacred Heart since 2008. She was born and raised Catholic. Amy's favorite prayers are the Holy Mass and the Rosary. Adoration is her favorite Catholic activity and she feels we are so lucky to have that opportunity to sit at the feet of Christ. She is active in the Catholic Social Justice and Hospitality Committees. Amy loves to sing, especially at Mass.

Harlee Stuart — Harlee has been a member of Sacred Heart since she was baptized, nineteen years ago. This is her second year on the Parish Pastoral Council. She participated in Youth Group activities during her high school years and went to World Youth Day 2008 in Sydney, Australia. She has been a teacher and a teacher's aide for the Religious Education program at Sacred Heart and is currently trained as a Eucharistic Minister.

Rosalie L'Ecuyer — Born and raised in Boston, Rosalie worked in the Washington, D.C. area for twenty-five years. She arrived in Alaska as a Jesuit Volunteer in August 1980 and became a Sacred Heart parishioner in July 1988. Since then, she has been active in several parish ministries. Most recently, she has participated in liturgical ministries, the Hospitality Committee, VOH, Landings, and Stephen Ministry. She welcomes input from the parish family on ideas about parish life and community.

Jan Fortune — Jan has been a member of Sacred Heart since 2005. She chairs the Hospitality Committee and is a facilitator in the Landings Ministry. She also serves as a lector, Eucharistic Minister, sacristan and leads communion services. Jan is a member of the Voices of Hope prayer group and has sung in the choir. Adoration on Thursday is a favorite devotion. Jan and her husband, Les, have a daughter, Francine, and a grandson, Gregory. 474-0507

Diana Kramer — Diana's husband Mark and her two daughters have been parishioners at SHC since 1982. Her ministries include serving SHC as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist, lector and leading Communion Services as well as participating in religious visits with women inmates at FCC. She is a member of the Diocesan Liturgical Commission as well as the SHC Liturgy and the Hospitality Committee. Diana facilitates Faith Formation at St. Marks Catholic Student Association at UAF. 322-2166

Ann Hagestead — Ann has been a parishioner of Sacred Heart Cathedral since 2004. Besides being active in the liturgical ministries, Ann devotes her outreach with the Landings ministry, which welcomes returning Catholics back to the faith, Hospitality, and Youth Ministry including high school religious education and Confirmation preparation. "We have all been blessed with gifts and talents, and in Thanksgiving, offer them back to build community." 451-8116

Lourdes Bernal — Lourdes and her husband have been SHC members since 1980. She is a new member of the Parish Pastoral Council, an auxiliary member of Legion of Mary and assists with the Spanish Ministry. She enjoys working with children and families from diverse backgrounds. She has an appreciation for family, friends and her faith. She is looking forward to serving SHC. The rosary, Anima Christi, Dedication to Jesus and the prayer of St. Francis are her favorite prayers.

Petra Carter — Petra has been a parishioner since 1985. She serves in the Parish Council and Landings. Her ministries have included Eucharistic Minister, catechist, lector, choir, Hosting Committee, the Hispanic community and prayer groups. Petra is glad to be part of SHC and enjoys her parish family and her many friendships. She does community out-reach as a member of St. Joseph's Associates and continues to strengthen her faith and spiritual growth. Some of her favorite prayers are Mass and the rosary.